In this issue, renowned estate planning expert and KC editor, Stephan R. Leimberg, Esq., CLU, provides insight into the chaos that is the existing state of the estate tax. He provides insight on the latest thinking in Washington and offers guidance for practitioners on addressing clients' concerns. You will learn:

- The estate, GST, and gift tax rates and exemption equivalents for 2011 absent Congressional action
- What happens if my client dies in 2010—the year of no estate or GST tax
- The workings of the carryover basis regime
- Implications for existing formula clauses in wills and trusts
- What happens if Congressional action on estate tax become effective retroactively
- State tax implications
- The continued role of life insurance in estate planning

In addition, through the courtesy of Leimberg Information Services, Inc., you will have access to supporting documents that include insights from leading estate planning experts, including Jonathan Blattmachr, Bob Keebler, Jeff Pennell, Steve Akers, and Conrad Teitell.

You can continue to subscribe to a full year of Keeping Current, which includes 4 issues in either CD or podcast format, for the low member price of $109. Nonmember price is $139.
