

SFSP Jan. 18 Luncheon

“EndowNebraska – Nebraska’s New Income Tax Credit for Charitable Gifts”

Join us for lunch on Thursday, Jan. 18, for an explanation of the technical details of Nebraska’s new Income Tax Credit for qualifying charitable gifts. This program will review some actual case studies covering the application of these qualifying gifts. The presentation promises to help you provide an even higher level of service to your clients by helping them accomplish their specific charitable goals and objectives through implementation of the proper charitable gift plan.

Our guest speaker will be Jim Gustafson, Gift Planning Director for the Nebraska Community Foundation. Jim specializes in helping donors achieve their charitable objectives while working with professional advisors. Currently, he oversees the Nebraska Community Foundation’s planned giving programs and projects initiated for the benefit of its 171 affiliated funds serving 162 Nebraska communities in 66 counties. Jim has guided the growth of the Foundation’s expectancies from $5.1 million in 2001 to over $16.2 million today.

For the past 28 years, Jim has worked in various areas of financial planning. Jim’s entire professional life has been in the financial planning field, including serving as an agent, trainer and supervisor with the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company in Lincoln, Nebraska and on the planned giving staffs of the University of Nebraska Foundation and The Salvation Army.

Jim consults and lectures on various topics related to charitable gift planning and fundraising. Since 2001, Jim has led over 35 workshops attended by over 600 financial advisors throughout the state of Nebraska. In 2005, he was one of the featured speakers at the National Conference on Planned Giving.

President's Message

From First Vice President Mark Lyons, J.D., CLU, ChFC, CEBS, MSFS

As some of you may have heard, our chapter President, Dave DeBoer, recently had surgery to replace a missing piece of vertebrae in his neck. During the operation, doctors discovered a mass growing on Dave's thyroid gland, which will require another operation in January. However, there is very good news — the prognosis is for a 100% recovery without chemotherapy or radiation treatment. I know that all of you join me in wishing Dave a speedy recovery. If you would like to drop him a note, his address is 10304 Huntington Avenue, Omaha, NE 68122.

Dave has assured me he is not going to let a little thing like neck surgery and cancer keep him from his important chapter duties. In fact, he wanted everyone to know that he has been reviewing upcoming VTC videos for technical correctness during his recovery period. And speaking of Video Training Conferences, we had a great one in November! The program was entitled "The Great Debate: Life Settlements" and was hosted by industry commentator Richard Weber of The Ethical Edge, Inc. The panel had a lively and entertaining discussion on the positive and negative aspects of the life settlement industry. I think everyone would agree this is just the type of quality program we have come to expect from the Society.

As a reminder, the DVDs from these training conferences are available for loan, so if you would like to borrow one to show at an office staff meeting or to share with our partners in the allied professions, such as lawyers, accountants, or trust officers, please consider doing so. It's important to put on display the quality people and programs associated with our organization.

As Dave mentioned in the last newsletter, our Chapter's goal is to have each member attend at least one Chapter event during the 2006-2007 year. Please help us achieve this goal. If you haven't been to a Chapter event, or you know someone who has not been to a Chapter event, make plans to attend or encourage others to attend. We have some fantastic programs coming up. January kicks off with a Chapter luncheon on the 18th at Happy Hollow Country Club. The program, "EndowNebraska — Nebraska's New Income Tax Credit for Charitable Gifts," will be presented by Jim Gustafson, Gift Planning Director for the Nebraska Community Foundation.

In February, there will be a Video Training Conference on "Long-Term Care and the Business Marketplace." In March, it's our annual Professional Development Day and New Designee Recognition. At this year's Professional Day, we will recognize those who have served as President of the Omaha Chapter in years past. This will be a "can't miss" event! More information will be available as the date approaches.

As the Membership Chair, I can't let this opportunity go by without talking about membership. This year we set a very high (but achievable) membership goal. During the first half of the Chapter year, we have focused on retention of our members from the previous year, and the second half will focus on acquiring new members. At this point, we are very near to achieving our retention goal, and we also have five brand-new members. But, I need your help. If you have not renewed your membership, please do so. If you know someone who has not yet renewed their membership, encourage them to do so. Do you know someone who would benefit from membership? Invite them to a breakfast or lunch program and let them see the benefits for themselves. Do you know someone taking American College courses? We have associate memberships available. Do you work with lawyers, CPAs, and trust officers? Talk to them about membership. Do you have wholesalers visiting your office? Are they FSP members? They should be. Anyone we do business with should adhere to the same ethical standards as we do.

As one year ends and a new one begins, many people take the opportunity to reflect on the past year and consider all for which they are thankful. We all know that 2006 was quite a year around the world — the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, the violence between Israel and Hezbollah and Hamas, the ongoing humanitarian crisis in Darfur, Sudan, and the tensions between the United States and Iran and North Korea. We realize we are very fortunate to live in the United States and to have the opportunities we have.

Personally, I'm thankful for my family and friends, my career in an industry that serves the public in such a meaningful way, and for being a part of an organization that values integrity and wisdom. It is my sincerest wish that all of you have a great 2007.

Thank you so much for your continued support of our organization.

Society of FSP Offers Free 60-Day Online Membership

Qualified professionals now have the opportunity to "test drive" membership in the Society of Financial Service Professionals (FSP). A free 60-day trial membership is now available, during which qualified professionals can access a wealth of online resources and tools designed to build business and advance professional growth.

Society of FSP research consistently shows that credentialed professionals who are aware of the benefits of Society membership generally join. The trial membership program provides potential members with a powerful tool to experience firsthand the many benefits of membership.

During the 60-day trial period, qualified professionals have free access to all of the online benefits, resources, and tools of membership in the Society of FSP, including:

- Online Research. A powerful keyword search capability makes it possible to pinpoint relevant information in an extensive library of financial service publications and articles, including the Journal of Financial Service Professionals and newsletters devoted to nine different areas of professional interest.

- Online Discussion Groups. Monitor any of nine Professional Interest Section email discussion groups to see what top professionals are talking about. The trial membership also includes access to archives, with keyword search capability to help members and prospective members find information on past discussion topics.

- Education 24/7. The free trial membership includes the opportunity to view one of the FSP's many archived educational web casts.

Qualifying credentials for Regular membership are: EA, CEBS®, CFA®, CFP®, ChFC®, CLF®, CLU®, CPA, CPC, CTFA, JD (licensed), MSFS, MSM, REBC® or RHU®.

Professionals working towards any of the above credentials qualify for Associate membership and are eligible for the free trial.

If you are interested in this program, please point your web browser to www.financialpro.org and click on the Free Trial Membership button, or call the FSP's customer service department at (800) 392-6900.

Miss a VTC? Check It Out From Our Library!

Here's Another Great New Service Provided by the Omaha Society of FSP!

The Omaha Chapter is now compiling a library of past video training conference (VTC) programs on DVD that members and other entities can check out for viewing on their own time.

The DVDs are available for individual viewing — or can be used for a company meeting by CPA firms, law firms, insurance agencies, investment firms, and other entities.

Rental fees are $25 for SFSP members and $50 for non-members, with a $50 refundable deposit fee (if the VTC is returned within 30 days).

For more information, contact Chapter Executive Joe Pittman at 397-0280 or via e-mail at sfsp@cam-omaha.com.

Enrolled Actuaries, Certified Pension Consultants Can Now Join FSP

The Society of Financial Service Professionals (FSP) has expanded its membership eligibility criteria to include two additional designations: Enrolled Actuaries (EA) and Certified Pension Consultants (CPC). Professionals with these credentials can now take advantage of the many educational, networking, and ethics programs offered by FSP.

According to Rich Lindsay, CLU, ChFC, RFC, AEP, president of the Society of FSP, the decision to add these designations was based upon the recommendations of a task force formed to evaluate credentials in the pension and actuarial fields.

“As the premier multidisciplinary organization in the financial services arena, we’re continually seeking to add value for our members,” he said. “By expanding our eligibility criteria, we create new opportunities for our members to create profitable professional alliances with their fellow members.”

Five criteria were used to evaluate designations within the pension and actuarial fields:

1. The designation or degree must be awarded by a credible institution or examining body as a designation or degree. The Enrolled Actuary credential is awarded by the Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries (Department of Labor and Treasury Department); the Certified Pension Consultant is awarded by the American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries (ASPPA).

2. The credential is awarded after successful completion of an examination or series of examinations designed to measure mastery of a body of knowledge.
3. Attainment of the credential should be subject to a minimum experience requirement appropriate to the field of expertise.
4. The individual earning the credential should have a continuing commitment to advanced education.
5. Earning the credential should require adherence to a professional Code of Ethics.

Individuals holding the EA and CPC designations are now eligible for regular membership. Individuals pursuing these designations are eligible for associate membership.

For more information on FSP membership, visit www.financialpro.org or call, toll-free, (800) 392-6900.
